You can see it done under the watch if you are skeptical. Three hundred and forty words a minute have been written in skeleton outline on the machine on a special run of small words. Our business is conducted on what we call the high plane plan, which is based on three suppositions: 1st. Liberality is the best advertisement. 2d. The world is wider than is generally supposed. 3d. Bread cast upon the waters will return after many days. Situations obtained for competent pupils, etc., etc. The commencement of another circular from the same school is so appropriate and fittingly describes itself that it is too good: Since the coming of the electric light more gas has been used than ever before. This might be descriptive of the circular, with the accent on the word gas, for indeed I never saw so much...

Reviews

Extensive information for book fans. It is written in basic words and never hard to understand. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
